

Vitamins & Supplements

The health food industry is forever changing and in order to keep up with it our staff has attended educational lectures, seminars, and listened to phone training and webinars by top professionals in the industry.

Besides having our own Private Label vitamins and supplements, Zoolies provides a wide variety of what we believe are the best supplement brands in the industry, such as Solaray, Terry Natural, and NOW to name a few. We feel confident in our choices in stocking our shelves.

Aloe

Aloe Vera is quite an incredible plant. Aloe Vera is high in vitamins and minerals. It can help you in so many ways. It is known for helping boost immune systems and health. Another good way to get your Aloe supplement is through juicing it raw. Aloe produces two supplements, gel, and latex, which are both used in medicine. Aloe or also known as Aloe Vera is such an important supplement. Some people take Aloe medications which can be taken orally or applied to your skin. Some examples of how aloe medication is used for is a laxative, bowel diseases such as Ulcerative colitis, having a fever or breaking out in a rash that causes itching and inflammation to your skin, and psoriasis it can also be used for diabetes, stomach ulcers, and asthma. Because aloe produces two supplements it is used for many more treatments.

Below is a list of how Aloe Vera can help you.

- High in amino acids and fatty acids
- High in vitamins and minerals
- Adaptogen (helps boost the body's natural ability to adapt to external changes and resist illness)
- Digestion
- Detoxification
- Cardiovascular health
- Immune System
- Alkalizes the body (helps to balance overly acidic dietary habits)
- Great for the skin
- Reduce inflammation

Herbs

Herbal supplements have so many benefits. Herbal supplements are the most commonly used type of alternative medicine. Plants have been used as an alternative medicine for years.
